THANKSGIVING.

Every body in town knows that this is Thanksgiving Day. The boys and girls found it out long ago, and they have not since ceased to remind the older people. But this is peculiarly a feast day that belongs to the older people. It long ago ceased to be a fast day. There is nothing in it for the children, except a holiday from school and three gorgeous meals that will put them to fighting Indians to-night. There are no firecrackers or Christmas gifts. The children are glad to see this day principally because it tells them that Christmas and New Years are close at hand.

But we have had the proclamations of the president, the governor and the mayor, all urging us to set this day apart for thanksgiving. When so many great men make their minds agree about the importance of to-day, it only remains for the rest of us to fall in line; and if there be any who can't get up the necessary fervor or enthusiasm through cold contemplation of the feast, they must take it upon faith. For a feast it certainly is; all the great men have said so, and the tables have been spread all over the land, and the guests have come out in their nearest approach to immaculate attire. There is not even a stubborn governor of Texas to bid some of the people stay away.

A great deal of good can be wrapped up in this day by seeing that it is made a feast for all. The poor are still with us, and winter is beginning to make them shiver. There is a dreary road ahead of them for a few months. There is something strange in the way they will get through these months. The prosperous man takes three meals a day. Some of the poor, yes, a great many, take three meals a winter. The rich who are charitably disposed will call in the poor to-day and give them a breakfast; at Christmas they will be given a dinner, and at Easter they will be seated at a supper. And so it is that some of them will pull through the uncharitable winter. Three meals are not a great many to stretch over four or five months, which makes it only the more necessary to see that none of them are missed. Yes, while the feast is spread to-day, let it be made known that all are welcome.

And what is there interesting about a feast unless open hearts sit at the table? What can be peculiar about it unless it is the good cheer that is supposed to be matter of the scant ceremony that prevails? And good cheer is always democratic; it permeates everywhere, and makes the king and Bohemian beggar comrades and equals. Take it away and the heaviest feast becomes a gorge. Just imagine a man who locks his dining room door to-day and lays himself out to eat all there is in sight. Even indigestion is too good for that old wretch.

So now that the idea of fast has passed away from the day, it is well to make it a feast indeed. And the one can be as holy as the other. The revolutionary fathers fasted that they might obtain a blessing. The thing asked for came, and we of to-day enjoy it. It is proper that we now return thanks; that we have a Thanksgiving Day. The best way to do this is to share the blessings, those that were asked for as well as those that have come since. It is a genuine offering of gratitude that is demanded by the former request and the circumstances of our own times. Charity is a sweet grace at all times, but we want something better to-day. This is a special occasion. It is a feast we are celebrating, to which every man should feel himself urged to sit down. All the people must join in it.

This idea of the day must prevail if we are to make anything of Thanksgiving. We have the Fourth of July on which to let all overcharges of patriotism escape. We have had Thanksgiving for no very particular purpose so far. A great country ought to be able to fill up two days in the whole year. It is high time to begin to put something into Thanksgiving. Make it a feast and invite all the people.

THE IMMORTAL CINCH.

There are indications that the republicans of the rump house of representatives in Montana are becoming sick and tired of their great act of nonentity. They have now reached that stage of disgust where some of the interested leaders feel called upon to deliver an exhortation every 15 minutes in order to keep them in line. During one of these exhortations, a day or so ago, a republican undertook to score the democrats for not assisting the patriots to organize the state senate in a little hole down in the gulch. This was too much for one of the republicans who was present, and so he eased himself by saying, "duty be damned. They have the immortal cinch and they would be chumps to let go."

He began to look as if this republic could have the situation sized up right. The democrats of Montana have the people behind them, their men got a majority of votes at the election, they have the governor, and if they haven't the great political lever known as the immortal cinch, we would like to know who has. Russell Harrison will never go to the senate from that legislature. The youth will have to continue to exist without any visible means of support. The people of Montana are of the opinion that the state can get along as well with two legislatures that have no quorum as it can with one Harrison in Washington who has a father.

The rump house of representatives chose a chaplain a few days ago to pray for it. He was a republican of course. He looked at the work that would be required of him and concluded that he was unequal to the task. This thing of praying for a set of political sandbags who were engaged in overriding the will of the people and the decisions of the courts struck the chaplain as something helpless. He simply declined to try. The same man would be willing to tackle the Hottentots, if called, but he draws the line at republicans who have gone into the conspiracy business. He is a very wise preacher. If this thing continues much longer, the Despatch will be forced to conclude that Governor Toole is not very much of an ass after all. If he has got the immortal cinch on the Harrisons and all the rest of that crowd, he has done very well.

STRANGERS in the city are cautioned not to run against our electric light towers at night. There are lamps burning on the top of them; we know this because the ordinances say so.

The general devotion of to-day are expected to keep the affidavit from making an appearance to-morrow.

CAPT. DEWITT C. SHOCKLEY misses another $5 to-day. There is great cause for Thanksgiving.

Married.
Yesterday and to-day will be great days for the God Hymen, who will do a rushing business at his altar. From the way things were issued yesterday it looks as if he would have to get an assistant, put on an extra, appoint a deputy, or do something of the kind. Seven permits to commit matrimony were granted by Clerk Hardy.

John Lowland and Miss Hattie Lichtenberger were married at 1:30 p. m. Nov. 27, by Rev. W. H. Trueblood, at the Hotel Brunswick. They will reside at 250 East Wood street.

Elmer Hilbiant and Miss Annie Garver were married at Argenta last night by Rev. H. W. Trueblood. They both live near Argenta.

The Census Will Show Less Deafness.
Washington, Nov. 25, 1889.—It is claimed that there will be considerable falling off in the percentage of deaf people in the Census of 1890, owing to the extended use of the sound disc invented by a citizen of Bridgeport, Conn., named R. A. Wales.

The Corn Prospects.
A. A. Smith, of Boody, was in town yesterday, and in conversation with a Reviewer said that if this sort of weather continued much longer there would be considerable difficulty in obtaining seed corn next spring.

Danger to the Wheat Crop.
It is claimed by observant, experienced farmers that if a hard freeze should follow this wet weather the wheat crop would be killed or seriously damaged.

Cause to be Thankful.
Five dollars of the city's revenue will be saved to-day from the clutches of His Whiskers, Mr. Shockley. That is one cause for thankfulness.

The Pension Board.
There were two applicants before the pension examining board yesterday. Some "originals," but the majority of them were for re-rating.

ACCUSED

NOT CONVICTED!

Our competitors are kindly helping us at their expense to advertise and spread the news that we are selling out to quit. They have accused the people who buy of us of being fools. See their ads. in The Herald of November 17 and other papers. We are selling better Boots and Shoes than those men (who charge the people—our customers—with being fools) have got in their stores, and we are selling them for less money than they can buy them. That's what sets them crazy and causes them to abuse the people that they say they want to continue making their living off of in the future. I was in Decatur 21 years, and have sold more good boots and shoes in that city than any other man now living. All my enemies are reduced down to 3 or 4 in number, and their only grievance is that I have supplied goods to the people at too low prices. I am so situated as to be able to do it, and the people and my competitors all know that I clinch what I say by making the low prices on goods. Over 100 have expressed the hope in the last few days that I would not remove my Shoe business from Decatur. I shall at least stay there long enough to make it hot for those competitors who accuse my customers of being fools.

Information on Shoes.

Broken sizes or stock of boots and shoes from one to two years old are not worth over 45 cents on the dollar. So says Pingree & Smith of Detroit; Reynolds Bros. of New York and Claflin & Thayer, of Milford, Mass. The above well known firms represent several million dollars and have made it all in the shoe business. So you can see when we offer a broken lot of Ladies' shoes formerly sold at $5 to $5.50, and cut them down to $3 there is no loss, but the shoes are sold at 30 per cent less than first cost. Now as Powers is about through with the high priced shoes we propose to sell you almost anything you want for boys, Ladies' misses and men for 75 to $1 a pair, commencing this morning.

MORNING REVIEW

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1889.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Feather Beds renovated.
For $1.35 at 553 N. Broadway.
Board at Combs' restaurant.
Nobby bracelets at Peake & Sons.
Let Chamberlain make your pictures.
Henry Bros. keep the best bread in the city.

Read S. M. Lutz's offer of special prices on organs.
Soft nut coal $1.50 per ton delivered.—F. D. Caldwell.
Buy your drugs at the corner of Calhoun and Edmund streets.

Good warm rooms at Combs' European hotel. Go there to board.

If you want a good, clean, wholesome lunch, go to Henry Bros.
Go to Combs' restaurant and European hotel opposite Grand opera house.
Grapevines for full planting. Best varieties.
George M. Wood.

Remember Hunter has the Pioneer Brand of oysters at wholesale. Best in the market.

Go to the Spencer & Lehman company for feed cutters, feed grinders and corn shellers.

Auditions put up and fine upholstery and repairing of all kinds done to suit you by A. Beer, North Main.

Prudent housekeepers who want to preserve their reputation as breadmakers, should always use Hatfield's flour.

The largest and cleanest soft coal ever offered to the Decatur trade at $1.50 per ton delivered.
F. D. CALDWELL.

No more useful Christmas present can be given than a Merritt Typewriter. $13. Office in Library Block, on William street.

There will be a masquerade dance at Guards' armory Thursday, Dec. 10th. Admission 50c. Ladies free. Good music and good order.

At the Decatur Musical college lessons are given in piano, violin, organ, harmony, theory and elocution. Pupils may enter at any time.

As no investment is cheaper than that made for education, the duty of parents to unite instruction with pleasure is possible. Teach boys and girls how to use the "Merritt" typewriter, and this becomes highly profitable in spelling and punctuation.

Do You Wear Fanny?
If so call at Watson & Hughes steam power tailoring establishment and see the elegant line just received. Over 75 new styles, ranging from $2.50 to $9.00. Also suitings of all styles, from $17.00 to $25.00. Overcoatings from $20.00 to $35.00. We are making more clothing than all other merchant tailors combined, consequently can save you 25 per cent. Call early before the rush.
WATSON & HUGHES,
127 E. Main St.

Business has opened up O. K. at Delle Harris' new confectionery, north end of Central Block. The public know where to go to get strictly first-class candies at reasonable rates. Remember, I don't ship stale taffy once a week from Bloomington, but make all my own taffy. Peanut and almond candy line every day at the store, north end of Central block. Look at the fruit display in the window.
DELLE HARRIS.

A Free Feast.
Have you seen the tempting display of good things in the corner of Wicket & Brown's saloon, 138 Prairie street? They are intended as part of an elegant free Thanksgiving dinner to which all are cordially invited. There will be fried smelts, fried oysters, turkey, roast pig and a variety of other good things to cheer the inner man. Remember, the invitation is general and the welcome will be cordial.
WICKET & BROWN.

Notice.
The Citizens Electric Street Railway Co., having refused to accept our tickets on their lines, we must decline to receive them.

Our conductors will sell six tickets for 25c, and Gorin, Dawson & Co. have our books containing 500 tickets, for $10.
DECATUR ELECTRIC STREET RY. CO.

Not Fools.
Notice some adds in recent issues of Decatur papers where they say people are fools because they (the people) trade with us. Such insolence ought to be "sat down on" and will be. The people crowd our store and the verdict of the people is always right. They are not fools.
FERRISS & LAPHAM.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs, are purposely avoided by the Gal. Fig Syrup company. It acts gently on the kidney, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all, and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Business Sold.
The junk business conducted by S. Frickelstein at the corner of Cerro Gordo and Water streets has been sold to D. Joseph, who will be glad to see all the old customers and as many new ones as will call. He will pay the highest prices for all kinds of junk. It will pay you to see him before selling.

Grand Reopening
of W. H. Carroll's newly refitted sample rooms, Thursday, (Thanksgiving) day and night, Nov. 28, 1889, with a grand free lunch of roast hog and other seasonable delicacies. All are invited to attend.
W. H. CARROLL, Proprietor.

The Place to Go for substantial, ornamental and useful presents. Grand stock, great bargains.
WINGATE'S LAMP STORE.
Merchant street, Central Block.

Over 200
different styles of choice goods to select that new suit from, at Malady & Sons.

For 31 years the public has been using the well known brands of flour manufactured by the Shellabarger mills, and as evidence of their popularity, the capacity of our mills has been increased from the little 50-barrel mill to our present 800-barrel full roller process mill, and our trade exceeds that of any mill in this state. This certainly proves that our flour still takes the lead. In the year 1879 we changed our mills from the burr system to the roller process, (the first mill in the state to use rolls on winter wheat) and at the same time changed our brands, White Wheat and XXXX, to the popular and well known White Loaf and Daily Bread brands. Since the change in our system and brands, our competitors have been using every means possible to duplicate both our flour and brands. They find it impossible to do so, but in some instances have deceived the public by the similarity between their brands and ours—for at a glance one would see no difference between the brands, because the name, design and color are similar to our White Loaf and Daily Bread brands. Yet the quality of the flour will tell and the public will soon discover the difference. We would caution the public in reference to this, and to see that every sack has either White Loaf or Daily Bread branded on same and the full firm name. Thanking the public for the substantial evidence of their verdict as to the quality of our flour, we are Very Truly Yours,
SHELLABARGER MILL & ELEVATOR CO.

Deep Cuts.
Danzeisen & Son, the reliable Merchant street butchers, do not intend to let Chicago or St. Louis dressed beef firms, with inferior meats, monopolize the trade, but will sell first-class native meats, such as they have always had the reputation of handling, at the following low prices for cash:

Rib roasts, 8c per lb.
Good boiling meat, 5c per lb.
Chuck roasts, 4c per lb.
Round steaks, 8c per lb.
Loaf steaks, 12 1/2c per lb.

Racks (fat on), 6c per lb.
Racks (fat trimmed off), 5c per lb.
Pork chops or steaks, 8c per lb.
Pork shoulders, 5c per lb.
Pork sausage, 5c per lb.

An Honor to Rector Goodwin.
The annual synod of the Episcopal church convened at St. Paul's church, Springfield, last Tuesday morning, Dec. 3. Rev. M. M. Goodwin, rector of St. John's church, has been appointed by Bishop Seymour to preach the sermon before the synod. The following lay delegates will represent St. John's parish:
William J. Quilan, rector's warden.
Lowber Burrows, parish warden.
George Mueller and William Boyd, vestrymen.

Mayor's Proclamation.
MAYOR'S OFFICE,
DECATUR, ILL., Nov. 27, 1889.
In accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States and the Governor of Illinois, I hereby call upon the people of Decatur, Illinois, to observe Thursday, November 28th, as a day of Thanksgiving, and abstaining from all secular occupations, recommend that they assemble in their places of worship and render thanks-giving to Almighty God for the manifold blessings of the year. M. F. KANAN, Mayor.

The Girls
no less than the boys need business training and a knowledge of business affairs. This can be secured with a certainty at Brown's Business Colleges, at Decatur, Jacksonville and Peoria. Business, shorthand, type-writing, English and penmanship courses. The Student's Hand-Book sent free to all. Address at either city, the president,
G. W. BROWN.

Moved
The new rooms in Library building, just occupied by Brown's Decatur Business college, are models of equipment and convenience. The students of no business college in the state, or in the west, enjoy better facilities than are now offered in Decatur. Visitors will be cordially received at any time.
G. W. BROWN, President.

Dangerous Negligence.
It is as unwise to neglect a case of constipation or indigestion as one of fever or other more serious disease, for, if allowed to progress, it is almost certain to result in a few hours' illness which will put the bowels in a healthy condition in which they may be kept by the judicious use of the medicine in one dose, one Fig. Mack Drug Co., N. Y.

Thanks.
We are truly thankful to our kind competitors for helping to advertise our final closing out sale. They are aroused by the fact that we are selling goods better than theirs, at less money than they can buy them for.
FERRISS & LAPHAM.

A Double Infusion.
DR. Flint's Remedy is a medicine which will cure cases of neuralgia which other remedies have failed to reach, as it exercises a double influence, in one case, on the circulation, and in the other over the nerves. Descriptive treatise with each bottle; or address Mack Drug Co., N. Y.

New Classes
are being formed in both day and evening schools at Brown's Business Colleges, Decatur, Jacksonville and Peoria. A good time now to enroll. Call at the college for circulars, or address the president,
G. W. BROWN.

Night School
is held Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights at Brown's Business colleges, Decatur, Jacksonville and Peoria. Pupils enrolled at any time. Business, shorthand, type-writing, English branches and penmanship.

Four O'clock Penmanship classes are held every afternoon at Brown's Business Colleges, Decatur, Jacksonville and Peoria. An excellent opportunity to learn to write. Everybody invited. Tuition per month only $2.50.

Annual Dinner.
The ladies of the Christian church will serve their annual dinner and supper and give their annual festival on Thanksgiving Day, in the room occupied by Cann & Co. The public is invited.

The White Juveniles, of Spring avenue, will give an entertainment on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3, at the A. M. E. church, for the benefit of the Antioch Baptist church. Admission 10 cents.

For Jumping a Horse a bit.
Sam Smith, formerly of this city, where he was well to do, is confined in the Decatur county jail at Clinton for jumping a board bill.

A full line of fresh and smoked meats at C. R. Foster's new meat market, back of his grocery store, corner of Water and Packard.

Fresh
Oysters, in bulk or can; fresh fish every Friday; fresh oysters from Michigan every day. Kipp & Moran, 654 East Eldorado.

With all due respect to our competitors, their employees, and the public who patronize them, we wish to say that we do not propose to kill an inferior grade of stock in order to meet their published prices, but through the quality of our meats, courteous treatment and honest dealing we shall aim to successfully meet all competition.
While it is a pleasure to do business in your midst, we are frank enough to acknowledge that we are not in business simply for the pleasure we find in it, but for the purpose of making a living by receiving a reasonable profit on what we sell, which we think we are entitled to.
We thank you for patronage bestowed in the past and respectfully solicit your further favors.

Information on Shoes.
Broken sizes or stocks of boots and shoes from one to two years old are not worth over 45 cents on the dollar. So says Pingree & Smith, of Detroit; Reginald Bros., of New York and Clafine & Thayer, of Milford, Mass. The above well known firms represent several million dollars and have made it all in the shoe business. So you can see when we offer a broken lot of ladies' shoes formerly sold at $5 to $5.50 and cut them down to $3 there is no loss, but the shoes are sold at 20 per cent. less than the first cost. Now as Powers is about through with the high priced shoes we promise to sell you almost anything you want for boys, ladies, misses and men for 75 cents to $1 a pair, commencing this morning.

Mrs. Geo. P. Smoots, a highly cultivated and estimable lady of Prescott, Ark., writes under date of April 22, 1889: "During the summer of 1887 my eyes became inflamed, and my stomach and liver honestly disordered. Nothing I ate agreed with me. I took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and for some time my life was despaired of by my family. The leading physicians of the country were consulted, but the medicines administered by them never did me any permanent good, and I lingered between life and death, the latter being preferable to the agonies I was enduring. In May, 1888, I became disgusted with physicians and their medicines. I dropped them all, and depended solely on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and in a few days I was permanently well—well from then until now."

So says Pingree & Smith, of Detroit; Reginald Bros., of New York and Clafine & Thayer, of Milford, Mass. The above well known firms represent several million dollars and have made it all in the shoe business. So you can see when we offer a broken lot of ladies' shoes formerly sold at $5 to $5.50 and cut them down to $3 there is no loss, but the shoes are sold at 20 per cent. less than the first cost. Now as Powers is about through with the high priced shoes we promise to sell you almost anything you want for boys, ladies, misses and men for 75 cents to $1 a pair, commencing this morning.

Mrs. Geo. P. Smoots, a highly cultivated and estimable lady of Prescott, Ark., writes under date of April 22, 1889: "During the summer of 1887 my eyes became inflamed, and my stomach and liver honestly disordered. Nothing I ate agreed with me. I took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and for some time my life was despaired of by my family. The leading physicians of the country were consulted, but the medicines administered by them never did me any permanent good, and I lingered between life and death, the latter being preferable to the agonies I was enduring. In May, 1888, I became disgusted with physicians and their medicines. I dropped them all, and depended solely on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and in a few days I was permanently well—well from then until now."

It Builds up Old People.
My mother who is a very old lady, was physically broken down. The use of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) has entirely restored her to health.
